Airline Flights & Seat Choices:

Our travel dates will give us a little break in price as we are traveling before the major summer travel season. We know that a lot could change between now and May 2025 to alter the price of airline tickets, so we recommend you purchase your air travel through Viking and lock in their prices and value. Schedules are normally announced within 6 months of travel, but that time may vary. You can request a custom schedule earlier for $100 per person. Air deviations with travel date cost another $100 per person, unless you are purchasing a pre/post cruise hotel stay thru Viking.

Coach seating air price is $1399 per person.

Premium Economy seating is $2398 per person.

Business Class is $4898 per person.

This price is the same from Tulsa; Springfield; NW Arkansas; and Kansas City

Premium Economy seats are the newest of seat choices in travel, and they give you a wider seat with extra legroom. There is a dedicated cabin with premium level benefits regarding boarding, luggage allowances, and onboard seating. This is an elevated flying experience from coach seating. Not every plane has these seats, but the longer flights to/from Europe will have them on most schedules. This is an excellent treat and value, and it gives you greater comfort than coach seating.

Business Class and the Lie Flat Seating is the ultimate in flying today. This is the most luxury you can travel and you can find it amongst all of the longer European flights. If you're looking to do this trip right, then this is the way to go.

Anyone who has Frequent Flyer Mileage, or Credit Card points, can also consider this pathway with airfare. This can be a trickier conversation here on this flyer, but we can make it simple and say that we have the experience to assist you with your options. Just let us know if you have any of these programs available to you, and if you want to try and use them.
